

Okinawa Memorial Day Lecture

From Onna Village to the World: A Message for Generations to Come

Join us for a special Okinawa Memorial Day lecture centered around Onna Village, the location of OIST campus. The speakers will delve into the historical conflicts that unfolded in this special place. We extend an invitation to join this solemn reflection.

Speakers

Takahiro Seto

(Onna Village History Compilation Section Staff) Seto san moved to Okinawa in 1992 and is a historian researching the Battle of Okinawa. He is an Onna Village History Compilation Section Staff member.

Chiaki Chibana

Originally from Kakazu, Ginowan City, with family roots in Motobu Town, Yanbaru, Chibana san is a staff member at OIST.

Terunobu Yamauchi

Born and raised in Nakadomari, Onna Village, Yamauchi san experienced the Battle of Okinawa when he was 9 years old.

Misato Matsuda

Matsuda san is from Sobe, Yomitan Village. She is a staff member at OIST.

Tue., June 17

15:00–17:00

We invite you to join us for a relaxing teatime after the lecture.

OIST Auditorium

1919-1 Tancha, Onna-son, Okinawa

Free of charge (Registration required)

Limited to 500 seats

Japanese-English interpretation

Register here

This event is organized by OIST and supported by Onna Village.