

SCIENCE TALK

Voyage into the Octopus Mind!

Sat, Oct. 17

2P.M. - 3:30P.M. (Door Opens at 1 P.M.)

VENUE

OIST Science Studio
(Yomitan Public Library Yun-Lab Miraikan)

Audience: Upper elementary school students and above

Admission Fee: Free

Capacity: 50 (Registration Required)

Language: Japanese (Interpretation provided for English talks)

▼Register Here▼

Registration opens at
10:00 AM on Sep 29.

Registration will close once capacity is reached.

Sun, Oct. 18

2P.M. - 3:30P.M. (Door Opens at 1 P.M.)

VENUE

OIST Sydney Brenner
Lecture Theater

Audience: Upper elementary school students and above

Admission Fee: Free

Capacity: 150 (Registration Required)

Language: Japanese & English (Interpretation available)

▼Register Here▼

Registration opens at
10:00 AM on Sep 29.

*Registration will close once
capacity is reached.*

SPEAKERS & TALKS

Dr. Danna Staaf

Science Communicator

“Are Octopuses Intelligent?
Wait, What Is Intelligence?”

Dr. Tomoyuki Mano

OIST Computational Neuroethology Unit

“Do Octopuses Dream? What sleep in an alien mind tells us about our own.”

They may look strange,
but octopuses are clever
and full of surprises.

Join two scientists and discover the secrets of the octopus!

INQUIRY

OIST Outreach Section community-relations@oist.jp

OKINAWA INSTITUTE OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY
沖縄科学技術大学院大学