APPENDIX 2 – ELECTION OF SA OFFICERS

SECTION 1 – GENERAL

1. The following shall be the procedure for the election of SA Officers as listed in Article Three, paragraph 1 of these Terms of Reference.

SECTION 2 – ELECTIONS

1. The date(s) of an election, the date of hustings for an election, the date of the opening of nominations for an election and the date and time of the close of nominations for an election shall be decided by the SC within the rules as outlined in this Appendix.

2. The SC shall give notice of an election at least seven full days prior to the first day of voting.
3. The elections for officers of this SA shall take place during yearly elections, to be held by the end of the calendar year.
4. The elections of non-executive officers should take place in the month following the election of executive officers.
5. Elected candidates shall serve in office for one year from the start of the following academic term.
6. All candidates shall stand for election against Re-Open Nominations (RON).

SECTION 3 – NOMINATIONS

1. The SC shall open nominations at least one fortnight prior to the hustings for elections.
2. Nominations shall be made to the SC, as instructed. All nominees must be members of this SA. Any member of this SA may propose a nomination.
3. No member of this SA may nominate more than one person for the same office.
4. No member shall be allowed to stand for elections, if the remainder of their time at OIST is less than three terms.
5. All nominations must be received one week before the hustings. Any nominations received after this deadline shall be considered void.
6. All nominees must respond within the week before hustings whether they are willing to run for election. In case of multiple nominations, the nominee must decide to run for one position only.

SECTION 4 – CONDUCT DURING ELECTIONS

1. Nominees must not harass or bully people into voting for them, nor defame other nominees. Nor may they encourage others to do so on their behalf.
2. Other members of the SA must not harass or bully people into voting for particular nominees, nor defame other nominees. Nor may they encourage others to do so.
3. Members of the SC shall not endorse nor defame any particular nominee.
4. Campaigning for RON shall be forbidden.

SECTION 5 – HUSTINGS

1. Nominees for all positions are required to hust. If a nominee fails to hust they shall be disqualified from the election, unless prior arrangements are made with the SC under special circumstances.
2. It is the duty of the SC to ensure a fair and equal hearing for all nominees.
3. Before proceedings begin the SC shall make the following rules clear:
 - (a) Each nominee shall make one speech at the beginning of their hust. All nominees may speak for a maximum of three minutes each.
 - (b) Questions shall be addressed to all nominees. Biased questions shall be forbidden. All nominees may speak for a maximum of one minute each.
 - (c) Outgoing officers are required to address at least one question to the candidates running for their office.

SECTION 6 – VOTING

1. Any Member of the SA may vote for the election of a member of the SA to any executive position.
2. The internal OIST groups domain shall be used, requiring login. To guarantee objectivity and impartiality during the election process, the voting process will be anonymized and the creation and management of the ballots shall fall under the responsibilities of the Constitutional Officer.

3. Each voter shall have one single transferable vote in each election.
4. Any abstentions will not be counted in the overall total of votes.
5. Voting shall be open for one week following hustings.

SECTION 7 – PROCEDURE IN COUNTING

1. The SC shall receive only the anonymized results of the election.
2. If the vote for any one candidate equals or exceeds the votes of all the other candidates combined, that candidate shall be deemed elected.
3. If no candidate has yet reached a stage whereby the votes cast for them are equal to or exceed the total number of votes cast for all the other candidates combined, the two or more candidates with the least votes shall be excluded if the total vote of such two or more candidates does not exceed the vote of the candidate next above, otherwise the candidate having the fewest votes shall be excluded.
4. The votes of the excluded candidates shall be transferred to whichever of the continuing candidates is marked by that voter as their next available preference, and the votes thus transferred shall be added to the first preference votes of those candidates.
5. Any vote on which no further preference is marked shall be set aside as non-transferable and the total number of such ballot papers shall be recorded.
6. If when a candidate has to be excluded, two or more candidates have each the same number of votes and are lowest on the poll, the candidate with the lowest number of votes at the earliest stage in the count, at which the candidates in question had an unequal number of votes, shall be excluded. If two or more candidates are still equal and lowest, the candidate to be excluded shall be decided by lot.
7. This process shall continue, with each exclusion followed by a new round of counting, until the total vote for one candidate equals or exceeds the votes cast for all the other candidates combined. The first candidate for whom the votes cast for him/her equal or exceed the votes of all the other candidates combined, shall be deemed elected.
8. In the event of a tie between the top candidates at all stages of the count, with all preferential votes taken into account, the SC shall hold a new election as soon as is convenient. In the event of another tie between the same top candidates in the second ballot the winner shall be decided by lot.

SECTION 8 – DECLARATION OF RESULTS

1. Results shall be written down on a “Results Sheet” detailing each stage and round of the count. This Results Sheet shall be signed by the SC as an accurate record of the procedure in counting.
2. The results shall be circulated to SA immediately after the count has concluded.
3. Once the results have been announced to the SA the winning candidates shall be deemed elected.
4. This announcement shall be final and no longer open to challenge by any party.
5. In the event of RON being deemed elected in an election, nominations for the position concerned shall be re-opened, and hustings and a second ballot shall be held as soon as is convenient.

SECTION 9 – PROCEDURE FOR FILLING VACANT POSITIONS

1. In the event of a position becoming vacant, the parting officer can be asked to extend their office for another term, until the following elections.
2. In the event of the parting officer declines the extension, at the discretion of the SC the responsibilities of that member may instead be absorbed by the SC. In such a case the Chair shall be in charge of delegating their duties.

APPENDIX 3 – THE SCRUTINY COMMITTEE

1. The Scrutiny Committee shall ordinarily be comprised of the Constitutional Officer, who shall be its chair, and the Deputy Constitutional Officers.
2. The Scrutiny Committee shall have 5 members total, such that each class year is represented by the Constitutional Officer and their Deputy Officers.
3. The Scrutiny Committee shall convene:
 - (a) if required to as the result of an electoral complaint;
 - (b) if requested to do so by any member of this SA, but at the discretion of the Constitutional Officer, in order to examine a complaint made about an officer of this SA concerning non-fulfilment of their duties; and
 - (c) at least once a year as part of a Constitutional Retreat in order to review the effectiveness of these Terms of Reference; the executive officers of the SA should also attend the Constitutional Retreat.
