

Japanese

Okinawa Amicus International

Teaches the Japanese MEXT curriculum in English for grades preK-9.
(Okinawa City)

Japanese public school

All public schools follow the Japanese Board of Educations MEXT curriculum.
(Area specific)

International Baccalaureate

Okinawa International School

Follows the IB curriculum in English from grades preK-9.
(Naha)

Okinawa Shogaku

Uses the MEXT curriculum for grade 1-9, then an optional Japanese/English IB program for high school grades 10-12.
(Naha)

Other

Da Vinci

Offers personalized programs of study for children from K-12. Very strong student support facilities. American high school curriculum.
(Okinawa city)

American

Okinawa Christian School International

Delivers the American curriculum through the use of secular textbooks, for grades preK-12.
(Yomitan)

Amerasian

Utilizes a mixture of American and Japanese curriculums to teach students from Kindergarten – grade 9.
(Ginowan)

British

Hope International Academy Okinawa

Hope uses a British international primary years and middle years curriculum to teach grades preK-9. From September 2020 they plan to have the Cambridge curriculum for grades 10-12.
(Chatan)

