

Kevin Falls (SISSA, Trieste)

Title: "Background independent exact renormalisation"

I will present a new background independent exact renormalisation group equation which can be applied to gauge theories and quantum gravity. The equation is based on a gauge invariant regularisation of the path integral which is achieved without fixing the gauge. I will discuss the advantages of this formalism over the effective average action approach to asymptotic safety.