Travel Insurance

Covers accidents/injuries during travel

Check with Student Affairs Section in case you are in need of insurance claims!

Health Insurance: National Health Insurance (NHI)

Japanese and foreign residents with a visa status for more than 3 months is required to join this insurance. Paperwork can be done during first registration at municipal office and you'll get payment slips by postal mail (from “恩納村役場 福祉健康課”).

Insurance premium is mandatory. Average; 1,000 -2,000yen/month for non-income in previous year. You will receive yearly amount but can be adjusted at the time of de-registration.

This insurance covers 70% of medical cost. Another coverage available when the cost gets high due to hospitalization, etc.

The image shows two Japanese government forms for National Health Insurance (NHI) registration. The forms are titled '納付書' (Payment Slip) and '届書' (Application Form). They contain fields for personal information, insurance status, and payment details. The forms are in Japanese and include checkboxes and input fields for various data points.
