Online Chat

Centar Srce provides free and confidential support and information by phone and online chat. We are here for everyone in Serbia who may require support with anxiety, depression, loneliness, self-harm, suicide.

As part of our commitment to preventing suicide, we are available to help you if you are considering suicide or harming yourself, or if you are noticing warning signs in a friend or family member.

When you contact us, you will talk with one of our trained and supportive counselors or volunteers who are experienced in how to help people in your situation. They will listen to you, unpack your story and feelings, and work with you to help you through your challenges. Anyone can call and receive free support. We exist to help everyone regardless of age, gender, beliefs or ethnicity.
